Imagine shaping the future of oncology care while improving patient access and outcomes. As TA Medical Lead Oncology, you 'll drive medical strategy, lead evidence generation, and champion innovative solutions that make a real difference. You 'll collaborate with global and local teams, engage with healthcare leaders, and ensure Novartis remains at the forefront of scientific excellence. This is your opportunity to influence treatment pathways and impact lives across Romania.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Develop and execute local medical strategy aligned with global product plans
- Lead identification of patient journey drivers and barriers to improve outcomes
- Build partnerships with healthcare professionals and scientific leaders
- Drive integrated evidence generation and support real-world evidence initiatives
- Oversee medical education programs and national disease awareness campaigns
- Provide internal medical guidance and training across cross-functional teams
- Ensure compliance with Novartis standards and local regulations in all activities

Essential Requirements

- Advanced degree (MD, MSc, or PhD) in medical or life sciences
- Proven experience in healthcare or pharmaceutical industry in a medical role
- Strong leadership skills with ability to influence cross-functional teams
- Expertise in medical strategy, evidence generation, and compliance standards
- Excellent communication skills and fluency in English (spoken and written)
- Ability to manage budgets and optimize resources effectively

Commitment to Diversity:

We are committed to building an outstanding, inclusive work environment and diverse teams representative of the patients and communities we serve.

Why Novartis?
