In this role, you ' re not just filling roles—you ' re a strategic partner and trusted advisor to business leaders and People & Organization. You ' ll influence critical workforce strategies, elevate how talent is identified and assessed, and champion an innovative, data - driven hiring approach aligned to the Novartis vision.

This is a role for someone who wants to make a real impact at scale—bringing strategic thinking, strong functional expertise, and operational excellence to shape the future of how Novartis hires and competes for world - class talent.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Act as a strategic hiring advisor to senior leaders, shaping targeted talent hiring strategies aligned to business priorities, capability roadmaps, and workforce plans.
- Convert market intelligence, talent trends, and workforce data into clear, actionable recruiting strategies and recommendations.
- Lead rigorous, structured candidate assessment for critical and senior roles, ensuring consistent, high - quality and future - ready hiring decisions.
- Direct and enable recruiting delivery teams to achieve timely, high - quality outcomes across diverse hiring volumes and complexity levels.
- Ensure full adherence to global hiring processes, compliance requirements, and recruiting systems throughout the end - to - end Talent hiring lifecycle.
- Build trusted, consultative partnerships with stakeholders through transparent communication, insight - led guidance, and strong expectation management.
- Capture lessons learned and share best practices to continuously strengthen our talent hiring capability across Recruitment Solutions.

Essential Requirements:

- Extensive recruitment experience (8+ years) within agency and/or in - house talent acquisition environments, with exposure to complex or specialist hiring.
- Proven credibility advising senior leaders, demonstrating sound judgement, strong commercial acumen, and the ability to influence at leadership level.
- Demonstrated success designing and delivering targeted hiring strategies for critical roles, informed by business needs and external talent market insights.
- Strong expertise in structured, evidence - based candidate assessment for senior and business - critical positions.
- Solid knowledge of recruiting systems, tools, and governance frameworks, ensuring consistent compliance with global standards.
- Highly effective communicator, able to translate hiring insights into clear, compelling narratives that drive decision - making and outcomes.
- Fluent in English both verbal and written.

Desirable Requirements:

- Experience hiring Tech or Finance roles.

Company Culture
