摘要

As Senior R&D Legal Counsel, you'll provide strategic legal support to BioMedical Research and Development China. This high-impact role offers a unique opportunity to influence decision-making in a dynamic environment to support growth with robust risk management governance. If you're passionate about partnering with cross-functional teams and driving long-term R&D strategy in Novartis China, we'd love to hear from you.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Strategic Legal Partnering - Provide strategic legal support to BioMedical Research and Development China in order to deliver long-term R&D strategy.
- M&A and BD&L Transactions for Pipeline Assets - Advise and support due diligence, deal advisory, and post-closing integration of M&A and BD&L transactions for pipeline assets from China perspective.

- Data/IP Governance - Support, from the Legal perspective, data/IP governance in R&D China to enhance IP/trade secret protection and data compliance with close collaboration with DPLA, ISC, R&D IP, and the relevant business owners.
- Trial Acceleration - Counsel on clinical trial operation and expansion in R&D China focusing on priority programs/trials.
- Compliance & Risk Management - Ensure adherence to laws, regulations, policies, and legal governance for R&D activities in China, focusing on trade controls, anti-bribery, GxP compliance, and pharmacovigilance.
- External Landscape Monitoring - Track legal and industry trends to proactively advise senior leaders.
- Regional Support - Assist Head of R&D Legal AsiaPAC in providing legal support to R&D AsiaPAC where there is no dedicated R&D Legal Counsel.

Essential Requirements:

- Graduated with law degrees from reputable law schools in China & overseas education experience.
- Admitted to the Bar & 8-10 years of post-qualification experience in reputable law firms is a must (transaction background preferred).
- Prior in-house experience with a pharmaceutical company, and/or IP/data expertise, is a plus.
- Strong proficiency in analyzing complex legal issues - Excellent problem-solving skills.
- Proficiency in English required - spoken & written.
- Strong verbal & written communication skills; high ability to influence and negotiate.
- Demonstrated competence in handling a high volume of activity involving multiple, complex projects simultaneously, working within tight timelines and demanding clients/business partners with a proactive approach and curious mindset.
- Excellent interpersonal skills, organizational savvy though with the courage to stick to professionalism; a believer of simplicity.
- Professional & culturally sensitive work ethic.

- Strong Business acumen and ability to manage change.
