Evolverà le prime strategie di brand create a livello globale, come le Integrated Product Strategies (IPS) in un piano di lancio competitivo e veramente interfunzionale che è adatto allo scopo per i principali mercati IMI e pone le basi del successo del lancio per i prossimi blockbuster di Novartis. (Internazionale)

-Supporta le decisioni strategiche e interfunzionali per le iniziative strategiche internazionali e sopra il marchio, comprese le partnership, la definizione delle politiche e per le risorse lanciate, monitorerà e risponderà ai principali eventi e agli sviluppi del panorama competitivo. (Internazionale)

-Stretta interazione con i principali mercati IMI, collaborazione con i team MAP e CE & E per modellare i risultati finali di lancio e le esperienze / percorsi / campagne / contenuti rilevanti per i clienti per i principali mercati IMI e con la controparte IMUS per garantire un posizionamento coerente del marchio in tutto il mondo. (Internazionale)

-Guida, gestisce e sviluppa le prestazioni complessive del portafoglio di prodotti attuali e futuri dei TA e fornisce vendite e profitti entro i budget concordati. (Regione/cluster/paese)

-Guida e sviluppa un team di vendita e marketing ad alte prestazioni e costruisce relazioni commerciali efficaci e durature con i principali clienti / stakeholder. (Regione/cluster/paese)

In genere guida un'organizzazione di entrate di paesi molto piccoli, che copre sia le attività di vendita che di marketing, con la responsabilità di guidare le prestazioni e sviluppare la strategia operativa di un portafoglio di prodotti specifico. (Regione/cluster/paese)

About the Role

Job Purpose

Lead the integrated commercial strategy and execution for the Immunology Therapeutic Area to maximize patient and customer impact and deliver sustainable growth. The role owns the TA and brand strategy, shapes the go-to-market model, drives omnichannel customer engagement, and ensures excellence in sales execution. It is accountable for launch readiness, post-launch performance, forecasting accuracy, resource prioritization and disciplined budget management. The role builds high-performing teams and fosters a culture of strong performance, integrity and continuous improvement.

Job Dimensions

Number of associates:

Team size varies based on TA footprint, product portfolio and country context (approximately 7 employees).

Financial responsibility:

Accountable for TA commercial performance and planning, including brand P&L / A&P stewardship (where applicable), TA sales budget delivery and accurate forecasting to support strategic and operational priorities (approx. USD 50m).

Decision making:

Makes strategic and operational decisions on TA and brand strategy, go-to-market model, customer engagement and channel mix, resource deployment and performance management to deliver TA objectives.

External / Internal Stakeholder Interface:

Internal: Sales, Medical, Value & Access, Execution Excellence, Finance, Supply Chain and other functions to ensure aligned TA planning and execution.

External: Key accounts, HCPs, KOLs, patient organizations and relevant healthcare system stakeholders to capture insights and drive customer-centric execution.

Impact on the organization:

Drives TA commercial growth, launch excellence, customer experience and in-field execution quality, strengthening market position and organizational reputation.

Major Accountabilities

Commercial Strategy, Brand & Go-to-Market

- Own and localize the TA and brand strategy and One Brand Plan across the full lifecycle, ensuring clear strategic choices and measurable outcomes.
- Define and evolve the TA go-to-market model based on customer, patient, competitive and performance insights.
- Partner with International and Regional teams to exchange campaign insights, course-correct and prepare future cycles.
- Set the integrated omnichannel customer engagement approach to maximize reach, relevance and impact.
- Translate strategy into clear brand and tactical plans with measurable KPIs and resource allocation.
- Lead forecasting, demand estimation and performance planning to support prioritization and growth.
- Steward TA financial performance through disciplined budget and trade-off decisions.

In-Market Sales Execution & Field Excellence

- Lead TA sales planning including territory design, targeting principles, incentives inputs and call planning.
- Drive performance management through business reviews, coaching rhythms and KPI-based corrections.
- Capture and synthesize field insights to continuously refine customer engagement and brand strategy.

Cross-Functional Leadership, Launch Excellence & Governance

- Lead the cross-functional TA team to align strategy, evidence, value and execution across partners.
- Ensure launch readiness and excellence across materials, capabilities and field execution.
- Role model integrity and compliance, ensuring adherence to company policies and local regulations.
- Build and develop a high-performing integrated commercial team, strengthening talent, succession and capability building.

Key Performance Indicators

- TA sales, market share and growth versus plan; profitability and P&L delivery where applicable.
- Quality and timeliness of launch readiness and launch performance outcomes.
- Execution quality of the One Brand Plan and field plans.
- Customer engagement performance across channels and field KPIs.
- Forecast accuracy and budget discipline with effective resource deployment.

- Strength of talent pipeline, capability uplift and engagement.
- Compliance with company standards and audit outcomes.

Ideal Background

Education

- University degree in Business, Life Sciences, Economics or related fields.
- Advanced marketing degree (MBA or postgraduate qualification) is beneficial but not required.

Experience & Skills

- Proven commercial leadership experience across sales and marketing in pharmaceutical, biotech or healthcare environments.
- Track record of delivering sustainable growth across the full brand lifecycle.
- Experience in go-to-market model design and omnichannel customer engagement.
- Strong forecasting, budgeting and business planning capabilities.
- Direct people leadership experience with talent development and succession planning.
- Advanced analytical, data-driven decision making and AI-enabled commercial capabilities.
- Strong cross-functional leadership, integrity and customer-centric mindset.
