Location: Ljubljana, Slovenija

Relocation Support: This role is based in Ljubljana, Slovenija. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support: please only apply if accessible.

Leading global inventory performance isn't just about reporting—it's about creating clarity and enabling better decisions across the supply chain. In this role, you will govern inventory and key performance indicator management for Novartis' Small Molecules platform, ensuring robust processes are in place and continuously improved. You'll turn data into actionable insights, enabling consistent, accurate, and timely reporting, while supporting data-driven decision-making at every level. Working closely with cross-functional teams, you will bring transparency to performance, helping the organization anticipate risks, identify opportunities, and act with confidence.

Key Responsibilities

- Own global inventory processes and governance for the Small Molecules platform
- Lead monthly inventory cycles with global and local stakeholders
- Deliver consolidated latest outlooks highlighting trends, risks, opportunities, and improvements
- Collaborate with end-to-end planning and Global Product Leads to align projections and parameters
- Perform periodic checks and analyses using data analytics tools
- Assess impact of supply chain planning changes on inventory short and long term
- Define and track key performance indicators and targets
- Run annual target setting and cyclical performance reviews
- Conduct root cause analysis for monthly, quarterly, and annual deviations

Essential Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Supply Chain, Operations, Analytics, Engineering, Pharmacy or a related field
- Strong analytical mindset with the ability to interpret complex data and generate insights
- Advanced skills in Microsoft Excel and tools such as Power BI, Qlik Sense or Alteryx
- Experience collaborating across functions in a global, matrix environment
- Structured problem-solving approach, including root cause analysis
- Approximately 2-3 years of experience in supply chain, analytics, pharmaceutical or manufacturing environments

- Fluent in English, both written and spoken

We offer you temporary employment for 1 year.

Commitment to Diversity and Inclusion
