Welcome to where we Thrive!

Novartis Innovative Medicines has an exciting opportunity for a HEOR/HTA Manager.

As a global healthcare leader, Novartis has one of the most exciting product pipelines in the industry today. Our mission is to improve patients' lives by providing customers with innovative science and differentiated healthcare solutions delivered by diverse and engaged talent with integrity, passion and focus on performance. Our mission is brought to life by talented, performance driven people. At Novartis, creativity and diversity are encouraged, effort is recognised, success is celebrated, and people feel valued and listened to.

This role will matrix-lead cross-functional teams in the development and submission of evidence dossiers to NICE, SMC and AWMSG, as well as overseeing HTA processes, including consultation phases, to achieve the desired outcomes.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Delivering high quality submissions
- Identification of critical evidence gaps early to inform global and UK opportunities to develop timely solutions
- Global interaction to ensure that the UK needs are understood and prioritised
- Be the UK internal source of HE&OR/HTA expertise, and keep abreast of trends and developments
- Effectively engage to ensure positive interactions with HTA bodies and effectively represent the company at public committee meetings and other HTA-associated meetings as required (e.g. with NHSE)
- On-time, on-budget delivery of the evidence and HTA submission/responses
- Internally communicate the HTA strategy, risks and mitigation plans to enable meaningful wide stakeholder engagement
- Manage internal and external suppliers to develop, adapt and validate HTA deliverables (e.g. systematic literature reviews, indirect & mixed treatment comparisons, health economic models, and submission documents)
- Manage cross-functional teams in developing high-quality HTA submission dossiers and high-quality responses to consultations, questions and requests from HTA bodies

Minimum requirements

- MSc in Health Economics or similar discipline
- Strong understanding of HTA needs and proven experience of developing and delivering high quality HTA submissions
- Experience of a similar role in another pharmaceutical company is desirable.
- Experience of working in the UK healthcare industry is essential

Benefits & Rewards

At Novartis, we're committed to reimagining medicine together - and rewarding the people who make it happen.

Expected Annual Base Salary Range for role: 59,360.00 - 110,240.00 GBP

The base salary offered is determined based on gender-neutral objectives, such as relevant skills, competencies and experience in accordance with the Novartis pay setting policy and upon joining Novartis will be reviewed periodically.

In addition to your base salary, you may be eligible for a performance-based bonus depending on certain performance parameters.

The rewards of being part of our team go far beyond base pay and incentives. We also offer a variety of competitive benefits in kind to help you thrive personally and professionally, such as insurance plans, retirement plans, wellbeing resources and global recognition programs. In addition, we provide flexible and hybrid working options, where possible, and minimum 14 weeks paid parental leave.

In addition to your base salary, you may be eligible for a performance-based bonus depending on certain performance parameters. Long-term equity awards granted at group level may also be part of your package. Further details will be provided during the application process.

Pay equity is a fundamental principle of our employment policy and reflects our commitment to create a diverse, equitable and inclusive environment that treats all employees with dignity and respect, as outlined in our Code of Ethics.

Read our brochure to learn more about our global total rewards offering:
