摘要

#LI-Hybrid
Location: Prague, Czech Republic

This role is based in Prague, Czech Republic. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support for this role: please only apply if this location is accessible for you.

Our Rise2Impact Programme in the Czech Republic is designed for high-potential early career professionals who want to accelerate their development within a dynamic, purpose-driven environment at Novartis.

Through rotational assignments, participants gain hands-on experience across key business areas while contributing to meaningful work that supports patients and strengthens our organisation. From day one, you will work on real business challenges with visible impact – from shaping commercial initiatives to contributing to digital transformation projects.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Deliver 3 structured rotations (6 months each) across key business areas (e.g. Commercial, Medical, Value & Access, Digital & Innovation, Business Excellence, P&O)
 - Take ownership of stand-alone projects in each rotation with clear business impact
 - Bring fresh thinking and new perspectives to challenge existing ways of working
 - Collaborate effectively with local and international teams across the Czech organisation
 - Build strong stakeholder relationships and contribute to cross-functional outcomes
 - Demonstrate learning agility and adaptability in a changing environment
 - Actively engage in mentoring, development programmes, and feedback cycles
 - Contribute to a culture of innovation, inclusion, and continuous improvement
- Apply digital tools and data-driven thinking (including AI where relevant) to solve business challenges and drive innovation
 - Contribute to projects such as product launches, process improvements, or digital initiatives with measurable outcomes
 - Present ideas and recommendations to senior stakeholders and leadership teams

Who thrives in this programme

This programme is designed for individuals who:

- Thrive in fast-changing and sometimes ambiguous environments
- Take initiative and actively seek opportunities beyond defined tasks
- Are resilient, open to feedback, and eager to grow quickly
- Enjoy collaborating across diverse teams and perspectives
- Want to make a real impact early in their career

Essential Requirements

- Have graduated from Bachelor ' s or Master ' s degree within the last 24 months
- Czech and English - fluent (B2/C1 minimum)
- Strong learning agility and ability to adapt to new environments quickly
- Curiosity and growth mindset - motivated to learn and explore new ideas
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Collaborative approach - able to work across diverse teams and stakeholders
- Confidence to take initiative and contribute ideas
- Problem-solving mindset with ability to think creatively and practically

Desired Requirements

- Previous internship or early career experience in a corporate environment
- Exposure to project work, student organisations, or leadership activities
- International experience (e.g. Erasmus, internships abroad, volunteering)
- Interest in healthcare, innovation, and improving patient outcomes

- Digital or analytical mindset
