Join Novartis and play a vital role in protecting the innovations that transform patients’ lives. As a Senior Patent Paralegal, you will be a trusted expert partner within our Intellectual Property team, managing complex global patent portfolios and helping bring groundbreaking scientific discoveries to market. This is an opportunity to work closely with patent professionals, inventors, and international partners while driving operational excellence, shaping best practices, and contributing to a highly collaborative global environment where your expertise can make a tangible impact.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Manage complex global patent portfolios and ensure timely execution of intellectual property filing activities.
- Prepare and coordinate European, United States, international, and foreign patent application documentation.
- Monitor patent dockets, deadlines, and correspondence to safeguard intellectual property rights.
- Serve as a key resource on patent procedures, regulations, and best practices.
- Collaborate with patent attorneys, inventors, and international partners to advance innovation programs.
- Lead process improvement initiatives that enhance operational efficiency and service quality.
- Mentor and train colleagues on patent prosecution processes and intellectual property administration.
- Support cross-functional projects and contribute to continuous improvement across global operations.

Essential Requirements

- Paralegal or intellectual property certification, or equivalent professional experience in patent administration.
- Extensive experience managing international patent prosecution activities in a law firm or corporate environment.
- Strong knowledge of European, United States, Patent Cooperation Treaty, and foreign filing practices.
- Proven ability to manage complex patent portfolios with exceptional accuracy and attention to detail.
- Excellent written and spoken English communication skills and ability to collaborate globally.
- Proven sense of ownership and accountability, with a proactive, solution-oriented mindset and the ability to thrive in collaborative teams.

Benefits & Rewards

At Novartis, we ' re committed to reimagining medicine together - and rewarding the people who make it happen.

Expected Annual Base Salary Range for role: CHF 82.600 - CHF 153.400

The base salary offered is determined based on gender-neutral objectives, such as relevant skills, competencies and experience in accordance with the Novartis pay setting policy and upon joining Novartis will be reviewed periodically.

In addition to your base salary, you may be eligible for a performance-based bonus depending on certain performance parameters.

The rewards of being part of our team go far beyond base pay and incentives. We also offer a variety of competitive benefits in kind to help you thrive personally and professionally, such as insurance plans, retirement plans, wellbeing resources and global recognition programs. In addition, we provide flexible and hybrid working options, where possible, and minimum 14 weeks paid parental leave.
