Location: Prague, Czech Republic

2 years fixed-term role (maternity leave cover)

This role is based in Prague, Czech Republic. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support for this role: please only apply if this location is accessible for you.

As a Medical Team Coordinator, you will play a key role in supporting Medical Affairs activities and ensuring the seamless execution of events, projects, and operational processes. You will coordinate and contribute to a broad range of Medical Affairs operations including managed access programs, study support activities, medical governance, procurement processes, medical projects to deliver compliant, high-quality initiatives that advance patient care. Working in a dynamic pharmaceutical environment, you will manage events, promotional and non-promotional materials, contracts, budgets, and business-critical systems. You will act as a trusted expert on compliance processes, helping ensure activities meet regulatory, legal, and data privacy requirements. This is an exciting opportunity for a highly organized and proactive professional who thrives on collaboration, problem-solving, and driving operational excellence.

About the Role

Key responsibilities:

Medical / Marketing Operations Management

- Lead the end-to-end planning and execution of medical, marketing, and educational events, including congresses and trainings.
- Coordinate logistics, vendors, suppliers, speakers, and stakeholders to ensure successful event delivery.
- Participate in management of promotional and non-promotional material approval, production, distribution, and inventory processes.
- Support key opinion leader and healthcare professional engagements, including contracting and administration.
- Monitor budgets, track spending, and provide operational support for cross-functional projects and initiatives.

Approval Compliance / Legal & Data Privacy / Procurement

- Act as a subject matter expert for approval processes, compliance requirements, and company procedures.
- Coordinate approvals, purchase orders, and documentation to ensure timely and compliant execution of activities.
- Manage third-party risk management processes and support vendor compliance across assigned projects.
- Maintain audit-ready documentation and serve as the primary contact for compliance-related requests.
- Partner with Legal and Data Privacy teams to support contracts, vendor agreements, and regulatory requirements.

Project Management and Training

- Coordinate and deliver marketing and medical projects from planning through execution.

- Support process improvements, system enhancements, and implementation of new operational solutions.
- Facilitate cross-functional collaboration to ensure timely completion of projects and activities.
- Provide training and guidance on systems, processes, and compliance requirements to business stakeholders.
- Track project progress, identify risks, and help drive efficient and compliant execution

Essential Requirements:

- Min. 1-2 years of experience in Team Coordination or Project Administration roles, preferably in pharmaceutical or healthcare industry (e.g. Clinical Trial Assistant)
- University degree in life sciences, business or a related field
- Proficient Czech / Slovak and English, both written and spoken
- Ability to work with multiple systems simultaneously
- Ability to manage multiple priorities at the same time
- Proactive problem-solving mindset with strong coordination and project tracking skills
- Excellent organizational, communication, and interpersonal skills
- Structured, detail oriented, and disciplined in execution
- Experience with documentation management and audit-ready processes is an advantage
