Help shape how Finance works through products that connect business insight, technology and innovation. As Manager, Business Planning & Analysis, you will take real ownership of Finance products, shaping their roadmap, evolution and ongoing impact. Sitting at the intersection of Finance and technology, you will turn complex business needs into intuitive, scalable solutions that improve how teams plan, analyse and make decisions. From enhancing user experience and data quality to exploring automation and emerging technologies, you will have the opportunity to challenge how things are done today and help build what comes next.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Own the end-to-end product lifecycle, shaping strategy and roadmaps through development, adoption and continuous improvement.

- Build product roadmaps that connect Finance priorities, user needs, business value and evolving technology capabilities.

- Translate complex Finance challenges into clear user stories, requirements and scalable product solutions.

- Partner across Finance, operations and Information Technology to turn business priorities into meaningful product enhancements.

- Prioritise product backlogs, balancing stakeholder needs, strategic value, feasibility and delivery timelines.

- Champion user experience, data quality and governance while ensuring solutions meet financial controls and organisational requirements.

- Identify opportunities across financial planning, profit and loss, cash flow, automation, analytics and emerging technologies.

- Lead workshops, testing, demonstrations and change activities that build engagement and drive successful product adoption.

Essential Requirements

- Chartered Accountant, Master of Business Administration in Finance, or an equivalent Finance qualification.

- Strong understanding of financial planning, accounting, reporting, financial controls and end-to-end Finance processes.

- Approximately 4 to 6 years' experience across product management, Finance transformation or technology-enabled Finance solutions.

- Hands-on experience with SAP PBC within a Finance or product environment.

- Product management experience covering roadmap development, backlog prioritisation, lifecycle ownership and continuous improvement.

- Ability to turn complex Finance requirements into clear, practical and scalable technology solutions.

- Strong stakeholder management skills, with confidence partnering across Finance, business, operations and Information Technology.

- Curious, analytical and future-focused mindset, with the adaptability to navigate competing priorities and drive meaningful improvement.

Desirable Requirements

· Experience using Jira and Confluence to support product management, requirements and delivery.

· Experience working with Agile methodologies and iterative product delivery.
